II. Discussion

The Easter Egg hunt will be on March 26, 9am-noon. Registration will end tonight at 8pm. Notifications have been posted, both as physical posters and on FaceBook.

Groups to register for are:

- 0-2 – Rebecca, will be held on the tennis court
- 3-5 – Kate, will be held by the fence line of the baseball field, closest to the township building
- 6-8 – Sommer, will be held on the baseball field, closer to the baseball diamond itself
- 9+ - Diana, will be held on the hill

Each group will be run separately, to allow parents with children in multiple age groups to observe each. Additional prizes will be raffled at the end of the hunt. Kate's husband will provide a microphone to handle prize announcements

Only registered kids will be eligible for the raffle, although any kid can do the hunt. No extra tickets for donated eggs.

Donuts from Donut Connection will have to be procured.

$2500, made out as a check to Nikki Sarchet, is the cost limit for the hunt. Receipts for all purchases will need to be submitted back to the township for funds spent.

III. Roundtable

Sommer suggested an earth day clean up, April 23, for our township roads. Nikki suggested that anyone interested could meet at the township building that day. Rebecca thought her company could lend safety vests to the participants, as long as they were returned after it was over.

In April or May, discussions will continue as to new playground equipment.

Meeting adjourned at 6:47 pm.
